

Rebecca Silber
Phone: (414) 453-4202
rebecca@gooddesigngoodfortune.com

Education

Washington University School of Art
St. Louis, Missouri
BFA in graphic design, May 2000 with a second major in art history

Work Experience

Freelance Graphic Designer

Rebecca Silber Design
Milwaukee, WI
January 2006–present

Graphic Designer

Schawk, Inc. (formerly Proof Positive/Farrowlyne Associates, Inc.)
Evanston, Illinois
June 2000–December 2005

Responsibilities include graphic design, project management, and marketing. Experience includes designing textbooks for all grade levels (kindergarten through college) and company marketing materials for a variety of clients and subject matter. Excellent rapport and communication with clients. Knowledgeable in the production process including scheduling out and managing long term and short term projects with tight deadlines. Have worked on or managed many aspects of projects including graphic design, photo research, hiring of illustrators, and file-to-printer preparation.

Sports Page Designer

Washington University Student Life newspaper
St. Louis, Missouri
April 1998–May 2000

Responsible for working with editors to design and produce the sports page and create graphics for both the Tuesday and Friday issues each week.

Skills

Proficiency in QuarkXPress, Adobe InDesign, Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator, Adobe Acrobat, Microsoft Word, and Microsoft Excel.

Past Achievements

Dean's List—Washington University, Spring 1998, Spring and Fall 1999
Jean Ball Rousseau Memorial Prize in Graphic Design—Spring 1999

Volunteering

Jewish Family Services, February 2006–present—arts and crafts instructor at The Golda Meir House, an apartment building residence for seniors; presently a “Friendly Visitor” at Chai Point Senior Living facility